

Al Naba holds in-house cricket tournament

Winners with their trophies at the camp grounds.

MUSCAT

CRICKET TENDS TO BE A RECREATION OPPORTUNITY FOR OVERSEAS WORKERS IN MUSCAT

Al Naba Group's 10,000-plus strong multinational workforce backed for an in-house cricket tournament that was held at the group's Al Wadih Camp grounds last week, according to a press release on Sunday.

In all, eight teams representing the various camps as well as the head office participated in the Al Naba's formidable tournament in the capital city, which is known for its high-tech facilities and modern amenities. While some teams were formed from their own employees, others were formed by groups of expatriates from their home countries.

The tournament was held on the grounds of the Al Wadih Camp, which is one of the largest and most modern of the group's facilities. The tournament was held on the grounds of the Al Wadih Camp, which is one of the largest and most modern of the group's facilities.

The tournament was held on the grounds of the Al Wadih Camp, which is one of the largest and most modern of the group's facilities.

a minimum of seven overs per innings. The tournament was held on the grounds of the Al Wadih Camp, which is one of the largest and most modern of the group's facilities.

Head of Recreation and Leisure Services, Al Naba Group, said: "We are extremely pleased to see our employees enjoying the sport of cricket in their spare time. It is a great way to build team spirit and improve fitness."

The tournament was held on the grounds of the Al Wadih Camp, which is one of the largest and most modern of the group's facilities.

It will provide an opportunity for overseas workers to connect with each other. After all, bonds formed during recreational and leisure activities can be a valuable asset in the workplace, which is a fact that will be recognized by all staff involved."

Head of Al Naba Star - It was crowned "Man of the Series" while Salah of Al Naba, Very Love - It took home the "Man of the Match" trophy. The event was held on the grounds of the Al Wadih Camp, which is one of the largest and most modern of the group's facilities.

from the